

Message from the CEO, Megan Pitt

Welcome to this special edition of our newsletter.

On 13 October 2020, after six years of service, the terms of the inaugural Chair and Members of the Legal Services Council come to an end.

This special edition of our newsletter recognises and celebrates the achievements of the first Legal Services Council, whose term began in October 2014.

Under the auspices of the Standing Committee of Attorneys General of New South Wales, Victoria and recently, Western Australia, this Council has demonstrated how a national approach to the regulation of the legal profession, aimed at supporting a national legal profession and providing consistent protection to consumers, successfully operates in practice.

On a personal note, it has been an honour and a pleasure to have worked with our Chair and all our Council Members over the last three years. On behalf of our secretariat, I thank each of them for their tremendous contribution to the Uniform Law scheme.

Council's Objectives

The Council's objectives under the Uniform Law are to:

- Monitor the implementation of the Uniform Law and ensure its consistent application across participating jurisdictions
- Ensure that the Uniform Law framework remains efficient, targeted and effective, and promotes the maintenance of professional standards
- Ensure that the Uniform Law framework appropriately accounts for the interests and protection of clients of law practices.

Council's Achievements

Over the past six years, the Council has worked diligently to monitor the implementation of the Uniform Law and ensure that the scheme is effective in achieving its objectives and expanding its coverage.

Key achievements have included:

Publications and information sharing

- Establishing an Australian Legal Profession Register to make data on NSW and Victorian legal practitioners publicly available and provide links to State Registers of Disciplinary Action
- Creating an AustLII Uniform Law Library containing Uniform Law legislation, case law, guidelines and directions
- Establishing electronic sharing of legal regulatory data (complaints and admissions) between legal regulators in Uniform Law jurisdictions and the Council to allow data to be compared and trends analysed
- Distributing a Legal Services Council quarterly newsletter to keep stakeholders informed of Uniform Law developments.

Rule-making and legislative review

- Developing the Uniform Rules in less than one year, to take effect on 1 July 2015
- Establishing rules to prohibit law practices from operating or promoting Managed Investment Schemes and reviewing the effectiveness of these rules after 12 months of operation
- Making rules on a range of subjects, including barrister's continuing professional development, admission matters, indexation and others
- Making an urgent rule to resolve a serious and unintended consequence of Commonwealth reforms to regulate litigation funding
- Undertaking a major review of the Uniform Law and Rules to improve legal regulation, in consultation with the legal regulators (known as the First Priority Amendment Project)
- Consulting on the interest rate payable on fidelity fund claims
- Monitoring legal developments and taking action to protect consumers and regulate the legal profession, including investigations into electronic conveyancing and PEXA
- Reviewing proposed amendments to the Australian Solicitors' Conduct Rules developed by the Law Council of Australia.

Stakeholder consultation

- Inviting Designated Local Regulatory Authorities (DLRAs) and other stakeholders to attend Council meetings to discuss proposals and inform the Council of operational issues
- Holding regular DLRA, policy and project team meetings to discuss legal regulatory issues
- Convening an annual Uniform Law Summit to bring together our Uniform Law partners to jointly review our achievements and collaboratively plan our future work.

Supporting the development of a national scheme

- Liaising with and assisting other jurisdictions in their consideration of joining the Uniform Law scheme, through comparisons of legislative regimes and information exchange
- Supporting Western Australia in its process of joining the Uniform Law scheme by 1 July 2021, resulting in 77% of Australian legal practitioners being covered by the regulatory framework.
